Operating as One for Your Business Matters

Based in New Orleans, Sher Garner Cahill Richter Klein & Hilbert is a business firm nationally recognized for commercial litigation and transactions.

Sher Garner is on the cutting edge, delivering sophisticated legal representation to clients through hand-selected, integrated teams of experienced transactional and litigation lawyers in order to provide the most efficient service. There are no false barriers; the firm operates as one. Clients receive the benefits of the firm's expertise and proficiency across all disciplines, as well as the determination and passion for protecting their rights.

It was a strong year for the firm, as it represented Texas Brine in a bet-the-company sinkhole case and ended the city of New Orleans' 20-year litigation involving firefighter pensions. The firm is regularly asked to handle major commercial real estate transactions of all kinds including leases, office buildings, agricultural properties, mineral interests, shopping centers, apartment complexes, manufacturing facilities, health care structures, entertainment venues, retail operations and public/private developments.

This year, 18 Sher Garner attorneys are selected to the Super Lawyers or Rising Stars lists, including eight 10-time Super Lawyers honorees. Leopold Z. Sher is recognized to the Top 10 and joins James M. Garner and Elwood F. Cahill Jr. on the Top 50 New Orleans list.
